VISITORS.

Messrs, C. H. Rooks and David Smyth, of Iowa, are in the city. They are gentlemer of a business turn and command considerable capital. They made a visit to Kansas with a view of examining its natural wealth and came to Wichita, like thousands of others, to inspect its greatness and the forces that are daily contributing to make it grow and keep it growing. They express themselves as highly pleased with the appearance of things here and with the state generally. They were seen yesterday holding a sub rosa ltation with some real estate signboards and figures in that line. They have already invested some and will probably invest more before returning.

EXPLORING.

A CAMP-MEETING.

the Editor of the Eagle. LATHAM, Kan., Aug. 19.—Our meeting was commenced here on Friday evening the 6th of this month. The grounds are beautifully located on Rock creek, one mile from Latham, a beautiful village on the Frisco branch running from Winfield to Beaumot. This far the meetings have been a glorious success. There has been from five to ten preachers in attendence thus far. The meet ing is under control of Elder D. N. Denney of Westerville, Ohio, as a pulpit orator and manager, he cannot be equaled. In fact, al the preaching has been in power and demonstration of the spirit of the master. The munity for miles around have been awakened to a full sence of their duty to gain the salvation of their souls. Last Sunday there was an immense crowd of people present to listen to the word of God as it fell from the lips of his servants. There has been from twenty-five to thirty conversions and the same number are still seeking the Let all come and enjoy there glorious meet-

INSTITUTE NOTES.

Nothing of a startling nature occurred at the institute vesterday. The exercises in reading commanded the attention usually accorded. Prof. Pence read one of Longfellow's poems-"The Old Clock on the Stairs." His rendition of the poem was the subject of considerable discussion. Like all other questions, almost every one bobbed up with his own opinion and in prominent role than sound argument. Prof. Shull entertained his grammar ciasses as usual. The lesson for the day was analysis and diagraming. The discussion of the subject was entered into by almost every member of the class, which is suf-
